

CoBe Capital specializes in the acquisition and operation of non-core and underperforming business units in the Americas and Europe from leading global corporations.

CoBe Capital acquires Bourrelier Éducation from Lagardère Group's (Euronext: MMB) Hachette Livre

December 1, 2012 – Amiens, France – Bourrelier Éducation conceives and creates pedagogical materials designed for children in kindergartens and elementary schools. It offers over 5,000 products, including books, games, and other learning tools, which are distributed nationally through a direct sales network and via mail-order and e-commerce. The original company was founded in 1964 and is one of the few French firms with a long-established system of direct sales and relationships across the full territory.

Press release

